General Conduct When Working With Young People

Procedures

These procedures inform staff, elected members and volunteers of what actions they should take if any allegation is disclosed by a child, young person or vulnerable adult, they have concerns or encounter a case of alleged or suspected abuse.

1. Listen and Reassure

Maintain confidentiality but do not make promises you cannot keep, and explain that the information will have to be passed on and what action you will be taking

- Be calm
- Be reassuring and make it clear that you are glad that they have told you
- Show that you are taking the child, young person or vulnerable adult seriously and that you understand and believe them
- Keep questions to a minimum; if you have to ask questions keep them open and not leading
- Try not to display any sign of shock or disapproval when the child, young person or vulnerable adult is making a disclosure
- Do not jump to conclusions
- The child, young person or vulnerable adult may not regard the experience as either bad or painful, they may not feel guilty or angry
- Be aware of your own feelings which may be different to those of the child, young person or vulnerable adult
- Take care of yourself by making sure that you have an opportunity to discuss your feelings with your manager at a later stage
- Do not destroy any evidence as it may be useful in a court of law
- Initial disclosure, even if retracted, must still be referred.

2. Responding to Concerns and Allegations

2.1. It is important that all staff, elected members and volunteers are aware that the first person that has concerns or encounters a case of alleged or suspected abuse is not responsible for deciding whether or not abuse has occurred. It is not the place of any Officer of the Council to investigate allegations. However, staff, elected members and volunteers do have a duty of care to the child, young person or vulnerable adult which means they must report any suspicions they may have.

2.2. It is the duty of any member of staff, elected member or volunteer to report any concerns about a child, young person or vulnerable adult being subject to abuse, receive a disclosure or are aware of members or colleagues behaving in an inappropriate manner. All reports should be treated as confidential and with respect to the person raising concerns regardless of the outcome. All instances must be reported to the Parish Clerk in the first instance.

- 2.3. In general there are 3 situations that staff, elected member and volunteers may need to respond to a concern or case of alleged or suspected abuse:
- 2.3.1. Responding to a child, young person or vulnerable adult disclosing abuse, ie they make an allegation of abuse.
 - 2.3.2. Responding to allegations or concerns about a member of staff, elected member or volunteer from your own observation or due to a complaint.
 - 2.3.3. Responding to allegations or concerns about any other person ie parent, carer, other service user.
- 2.4. In the case of an emergency where a child, young person or vulnerable adult is in danger phone 999 immediately.
- 2.5. Record in writing all the details that you are aware of and what was said using the child, young person or vulnerable adult's own words immediately. In your record you should include the following:
- The date and time;
 - The child, young person or vulnerable adult's name and address;
 - The nature of the allegation;
 - Your observations – a description of the child, young person or vulnerable adult's behaviour, physical and emotional state and any visible injuries;
 - Exactly what the child, young person or vulnerable adult said and what you said. Record the child, young person or vulnerable adult's account of what has happened as closely as possible;
 - Sign and date what you have recorded.
- 2.6. Do not ask questions, other than the child, young person or vulnerable adult's name and address. Reassure the child, young person or vulnerable adult that they have done the right thing in telling you.
- 2.7. Contact local Norfolk County Council Social Services or the Police without delay and following their guidance.
- 2.8. Every effort should be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained for all concerned. Information should be handled and disclosed on a need to know basis only, this is usually Social Services or the Police. It is extremely important that allegations or concerns are not discussed, as any breach of confidentiality could be damaging to the child, young person or vulnerable adult, their family, those who are the subject of the allegations and any child protection investigations that may follow.
- 2.9. Informing the parents or legal guardian of a child, young person or vulnerable adult of concerns you may have should be dealt with by Social Services. Any individual against whom an allegation has been made has the right to be notified about the cause of concern. This should be done by Social Services and the Police. It is important that the timing of this does not prejudice the investigation; therefore confidentiality is of the upmost importance.
